NOTE: PIOC complies with GDPR 2018 and as such requires your permission to hold and use data pertinent to the Operation of the organisation. YOUR SIGNATURE CONFIRMS YOUR PERMISSION FOR PIOC TO HOLD YOUR DATA. PIOC will not pass your information to any third party, as required under GDPR 2018. Your Information will be deleted from all areas if or when you decide to leave the Party.

Terms of Party Membership

1. By applying for membership of PIOC you agree to accept and conform to the constitution, programme, principles, and policy of the Party, hold your membership at the address where you reside and if eligible be registered as an elector at that address.
2. You also confirm that you are not a member of any other registered political party, and you are not a member of any organisation incompatible with membership of PIOC. Should you already be a member of another political group/party and are not willing to dissolve the pre existing membership, then your vote within PIOC will be invalid.
3. Your Provisional membership rights commence from the date your membership is recorded on the membership list. Your provisional membership lasts eight weeks (unless the Committee decide to extend that period) and during that time you can attend PIOC meetings in a non-voting capacity, and your membership can be rejected, you would be advised in writing and depending on the reason you could have a right of appeal. Full membership Rules and Procedures are available in the PIOC Code of Conduct.
